

Laws of Maryland of 1912.

MARYLAND, Sct.:

At a Session of the General Assembly of Maryland, begun and held in the City of Annapolis, on the third day of January, 1912, His Excellency Austin L. Crothers, being Governor of the State for and during the first week thereof, and His Excellency Phillips Lee Goldsborough, being Governor from and after said first week of said Session, the following laws were enacted, to wit:

CHAPTER 1.

AN ACT to repeal sections 48 and 55 of Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland of 1904, title "Elections," sub-title "Ballots and Ballot Boxes," as said section 48 was enacted by Chapter 416 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1910, and as said section 55 of said Article 33 was enacted by Chapter 737 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1908 and to re-enact said sections with amendments, said section 48 as so re-enacted with amendments relating to the publication of nomination to office and prohibiting under penalties the publication and circulation of sample or fac-simile ballots to be used in certain counties and the taking into the polling place and the use of any stencil, rule, measure or other mechanical device as an aid in voting in certain counties.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That sections 48 and 55 of Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Elections," sub-title "Ballot and Ballot Boxes," as said section 48 was enacted by Chapter 416 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1910 and as the said section 55 of said Article 33 was enacted with amendments by Chapter 737 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1908 be and the said sections are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as, severally and respectively, to read as follows:
