

upon such abutting property, with priority over other liens thereon recorded after the passage of this act, and said assessments when made and apportioned as aforesaid unless promptly paid to the town treasurer shall be placed in the hands of the collector of taxes for the town of Pocomoke to be collected by him as other town taxes are collected.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That all other expenses connected with the improvement of the said streets, the laying or re-laying of water mains or sewer mains, if any, the connection therefrom to the curb, if any, and the paving of the street crossings as well as all expenses connected with the execution of this law, such as the cost of advertising, the purchase of books and stationery, the printing of bonds herein authorized, the employment of an attorney or counsel, if any should be needed, and other necessary and incidental expenditures shall be paid out of the street improvement fund hereby authorized and shall not be included in the cost to be levied upon the abutting property owners.

SEC. 11. Provided, however, that the foregoing sections shall not become effective unless the same be approved by a majority of the qualified voters of the town of Pocomoke aforesaid participating in a special election at which the question of street improvement as hereinbefore provided shall be submitted, to be held on Tuesday, the 23rd day of April in the year 1912.

At the polling place in said town on said date there shall be provided by the Mayor and Town Council of Pocomoke tickets having written or printed thereon "For Street Improvements" and "Against Street Improvements," and each qualified voter shall have the privilege of voting on said subject.

The ballots so cast shall be deposited in separate ballot boxes provided by said Mayor and Town Council for such purpose, and shall be received and counted by the same judges and clerks who are delegated and appointed by the Mayor and Council of Pocomoke City to conduct the election for the office of Mayor and Councilmen of Pocomoke City, to be held on April 2, 1912, it being the intent and purpose of this act that the judge and clerk appointed by the Mayor and Council of Pocomoke aforesaid for holding the election for said office of Mayor and Councilmen of Pocomoke shall have full power to conduct the special election on the question of street improvement; and the return of said votes shall be forthwith made to the Mayor and Council of Pocomoke, who promptly shall make proclamation of the result of said election by advertisement in one or more newspapers printed in the town of Pocomoke aforesaid;
