

and equipping a library and a physical laboratory, and making necessary repairs to the present building known as State Normal School Number Two, situated at Frostburg, in Allegany county, said sum of money to be expended by the State Board of Education in its discretion for the purposes set forth in this act.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer of the State, upon the warrant of the Comptroller, be and he is hereby directed to pay over the said amount of money hereby appropriated to the Treasurer of the State Board of Education.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 11, 1912.

CHAPTER 179.

AN ACT to declare the sanction and consent of the General Assembly of Maryland to the bequest and devise contained in the last will and testament of Amanda Harris, of Easton, Talbot county, Maryland, deceased.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the sanction and consent of the General Assembly of Maryland be and the same is hereby declared, given and granted to the following gifts, bequests and devises contained in the last will and testament of Amanda Harris, deceased, late of Talbot county and State of Maryland, as follows: To the devise in the 5th item of said will of five hundred ($500) dollars to the Trustees of the Easton Methodist Protestant Church (Called "Calvary") of the Maryland Conference, in the town of Easton, Maryland. Also to the devise in the sixth item of said will of all the rest and residue of said deceased estate unto the Trustees of the Easton Methodist Protestant Church (Called "Calvary") of the Maryland Conference.

Approved April 4, 1912.

CHAPTER 180.

AN ACT to enable and authorize the County Commissioners of Talbot County to construct and build a canal at or near the village of Royal Oak, in said county, connecting the waters of Broad Creek and Tred Avon River with the waters of Miles River, provided the cost of constructing and building said canal shall not exceed the sum of sixty thousand dollars.