

after be authorized by law to levy upon property upon execution on judgments issued out of the Circuit Court for said county, and shall advertise and sell personal property in the same manner as is now or may hereafter be required by law in the case of sales of personal property by the sheriff of said county, and to deliver the property so sold to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, and for the purpose of the levy of the sale herein provided for, said treasurer shall have all the powers now had or lawfully exercised by the sheriff of said Court, executing executions on judgments of the Circuit Court for said county, and shall if it be necessary, have the same power now or hereafter to be prescribed by law for the levy upon and the sale of shares of stock in any association or corporation which the sheriff of said county may or shall possess in executing executions or judgments of said Court; and said treasurer shall be entitled to receive out of the proceeds of sales made under this section, the same fees and allowances as are now or may hereafter be allowed by law to the sheriff of said county on executions issued as aforesaid; this section to be construed as an addition to, and not as a substitution for the powers of the treasurer to collect taxes assessed upon personal property by suit; and it is hereby expressly provided that said treasurer, if he deem such course advisable, may proceed to collect any and all taxes due upon such personal property by suit, in the name of the County Commissioners of Prince George's County, before any justice of the peace in and for said county. And out of the proceeds of sale of such personal property the treasurer shall pay all costs and expense incident to such sale, and the taxes in arrears thereon and interest, and the surplus, if any, he shall pay over to such delinquent taxpayer. And any sale or sales of personal property made under the provisions of this section shall be reported by the treasurer to the Circuit Court for Prince George's County, in the same way that a sheriff's sale is reported, within thirty days from said sale showing to whom, and at what price, the articles of personal property were respectively sold, the amount of taxes and of interest accrued and costs of said sale.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.
