

Patrick J. McCormick and Philip J. Stover, contractors, trading as McCormick and Company, which firm contracted with the State Roads Commission of the State of Maryland for the construction of such highway, and was afterwards adjudicated bankrupt in the District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

(Vetoed.)

---

CHAPTER 187.

AN ACT to provide additional accommodations for the insane and feeble-minded within the State of Maryland, and to that end to authorize the creation and issue of a loan by the State of Maryland in the sum of $800,000, to be apportioned and used as follows: $175,000 for the erection and construction of additional buildings at the Springfield State Hospital at Sykesville; $100,000 for the erection and construction of additional buildings at the Maryland Hospital for the Insane at Catonsville, to be hereafter styled "Spring Grove State Hospital;" $175,000 for the erection and construction of additional buildings at the Hospital for the Negro Insane of Maryland at Crownsville, to be hereafter styled "Crownsville State Hospital;" $150,000 for the erection and construction of additional buildings and the purchase of additional land at the Maryland Asylum and Training School for the Feeble-Minded at Owings Mills, to be hereafter styled "Rosewood State Training School;" $200,000 for the erection and construction of buildings and the purchase of land for a hospital on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, to be styled "Eastern Shore State Hospital;" and to provide for the creation of a sinking fund for the redemption of the said loan at maturity; and to provide for the appointment of the board of managers for the said Eastern Shore State Hospital, and to prescribe the powers and duties of said board, and to authorize the purchase of such land, and the erection of such buildings as may be requisite in order to fully effectuate the objects and purposes above mentioned.