

SEC. 15. The bailiff shall perform such duties as the Commissioners shall direct; he shall preserve the peace, prevent disorderly or irregular meetings of persons, and he shall enforce all ordinances that may be enacted by the Commissioners; he shall serve all notice or process required by said Charter, or any ordinance passed by virtue thereof, and his return duly endorsed thereon shall be evidence of the facts therein stated, and he shall receive the same fees as are allowed to constables for like services.

SEC. 16. All fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by the Charter or by the ordinances of the Commissioners may be collected in the name of the Town of Secretary before any justice of the peace in the same manner as small debts are collected, and the delinquent shall be committed to the town lockup or county jail until the same be paid with costs.

SEC. 17. All fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by any Court or justice of the peace for violations of the Charter, by-laws or ordinances shall belong to and be paid to the Commissioners of Secretary.

SEC. 18. The Commissioners may borrow money on their negotiable paper; provided that the sum so borrowed shall at no time exceed the sum of three hundred dollars.

SEC. 19. The year for repairing the highways and streets of said town shall be reckoned from the 1st day of January inclusive in one year to the 1st day of January exclusive of the next year. Every able-bodied male person between the age of twenty-one and fifty years, who has resided in said town for four months shall be bound to work on said highways and streets for one day in every year, as the year is herein defined, and if any person who is liable to render such service fails to attend on notice from the bailiff, or who appears and fails or refuses to work and render service as by the person or persons supervising the work he is required and instructed, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before a justice of the peace or in the Circuit Court for Dorchester County, such person shall be fined one dollar and shall be adjudged to pay the costs, and to stand committed to the jail until fine and costs are paid, and he shall still be bound to render said services. Any person who pays to the bailiff for the use of the town the sum of one dollar in lieu of rendering personal services on said streets and highways shall receive a receipt therefor from said bailiff exempting him from work and service on said highways and streets for the term of one year, as the year is herein defined. The commissioners shall have the power and authority to pass the necessary
