

the first day of January and the 15th day of August next ensuing, or any summer or wood duck between the first day of January and the first day of August next ensuing.

SEC. 35A. No person shall at any time sell or offer for sale to any merchant, broker, commission merchant or huckster, for the purpose of shipping out of said county, or ship out of said county, or receive for shipment out of said county, any quail, partridge, woodcock, dove, squirrel or rabbit; but any person traveling or going out of said county may carry with him or her as a part of their personal passage not more than twelve quail or partridge, six rabbits, six woodcocks, six squirrels and six doves at any one time; provided, that said game, when so carried out of said county shall be carried in such manner so as to disclose to the public the kind and quality of game so carried; in no event shall it be lawful to carry said game in any quantity or quantities out of said county for the purpose of sale; but nothing contained herein shall be construed or held to prevent or forbid any person killing any such birds or game from selling same to any person in this county for their private use or for the purpose of resale within the county.

SEC. 35B. No person shall at any time in said county shoot at or kill any quail, partridge, woodcock, dove, squirrel or rabbit or any kind of water fowl with any other kind of firearm or gun than such as is habitually raised at arm's length to the shoulder.

SEC. 35C. No person shall at any time trap, net or ensnare any quail, partridge, woodcock, dove, squirrel or water fowl of any kind or have in his or their possession any trap, net or snare to be used to capture or kill any such birds, game or water fowl, and any trap, net or snare which shall be found upon the land, marsh or waters of any person or persons shall be deemed prima facie evidence of the ownership and possession of, and the intent and purpose to capture or kill such birds or fowls on the part of the owner or tenant of such land, marsh or waters; and no person shall destroy or molest the eggs or nest of any of said birds or water fowl at any time.

SEC. 35D. No person shall hunt any quail, partridge or rabbit during any closed season with any dog or gun, and no person shall hunt or kill any quail, partridge, woodcock, dove, squirrel or rabbit with dog or gun, on any Sunday; no person shall shoot or catch any quail, partridge, woodcock, dove, squirrel or rabbit when snow is on the ground.
