

SEC. 36. Every person who shall be convicted before any justice of the peace, or the Circuit Court for Dorchester County for violating section 35 or section 35A shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall pay a fine of ten dollars for each and every quail, partridge, dove, woodcock, squirrel, rabbit and summer or wood duck, killed, carried, sold, shipped, received for shipment or found in their possession, contrary to the provisions of said sections, and in default of payment of the fine imposed hereunder, together with all costs, shall be committed to the county jail for not less than thirty days, nor more than six months, or until both fine and costs are paid. Every person who shall be convicted under section 35B shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense, and every gun which is not habitually fired from the shoulder, as therein set forth, shall be seized, forfeited and destroyed; every person convicted under section 35C shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than two months, nor more than one year, or both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the justice of the peace or Circuit Court for Dorchester County; every person convicted under section 35D shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined the sum of five dollars for each and every offense or be imprisoned in the county jail for not more than sixty days or both, in the discretion of the justice of the peace or the Circuit Court for Dorchester County.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 8, 1912.

CHAPTER 220.

AN ACT to authorize Homer H. Murphy and John O. Murphy to construct in front of their land on Tedion's Creek, in Straits Election District in Dorchester county, Maryland, a wharf or road extending out into the waters of Tedion's Creek, an arm of Fishing Bay.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Homer H. Murphy and John O. Murphy, of Bishop's Head, in Dorchester county, State of Maryland, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to construct a wharf or road at and adjoining the lands of the said Homer H. Murphy and John O. Murphy, bordering on Tedion's Creek, an arm