

preventing unauthorized persons from killing certain birds and animals, no person or persons over the age of twelve years shall at any time hunt, pursue or kill with a gun, partridge (quail), woodcock, English pheasants, pheasants (ruffed grouse), snipe, doves, water fowl, rabbit or squirrel, reed birds, rails or other birds, or wild animals that are protected by a closed season, in which it shall be unlawful to kill them during any part of the year without first having procured a license to so hunt, pursue or kill, and then only during the respective periods of the year when it shall be lawful to hunt, pursue or kill such above enumerated birds or animals. The said license shall be procured from the clerk of the Circuit Court for Dorchester County in the following manner, to wit: The applicant shall fill out and file in the office of the said clerk a blank application to be furnished by the County Game Warden through the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county, stating the name, age, color, height, color of eyes and hair, occupation and place of residence of applicant. The applicant, if a non-resident of the State of Maryland, shall pay to the said clerk of the said Court at the time of filing his or her application the sum of ten dollars ($10.00), but if a resident of any other than Dorchester county in the State, the sum of $5.00 as a license fee; if a non-resident applicant is a land owner to the assessed value of five hundred dollars ($500.00) in Dorchester county, in which case he or she shall pay a fee of one dollar ($1.00) as a resident license; and if a resident of Dorchester county, the applicant shall pay to the clerk of the said Court the sum of one dollar ($1.00), as a license fee. The said clerk shall thereupon issue a license, to be supplied to the said clerk of the said county by the County Game Warden, and said license shall bear the signature of the County Game Warden and the seal of the Circuit Court of the said county, and shall be countersigned by the said clerk. Such license shall be void on the 1st day of June of each year following the date of its issue. From the licensed fees so received the clerk shall retain the sum of one dollar ($1.00) from each non-resident license, and the sum of ten cents from each resident license for issuing same, and shall deliver the license properly executed to the applicant or mail it to him or her without further cost. Such license shall not be transferable, and if it shall be used or presented by any person other than the person to whom it is issued, such license shall be confiscated by the County Game Warden, his deputy or any constable, sheriff or deputy sheriff, who shall find such license being used.
