

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That every license so issued shall be signed by the licensee in ink and shall entitle the person to whom it is issued to hunt, pursue and kill birds and animals within Dorchester county, at any time when it shall be lawful to hunt, pursue or kill such birds or animals, and no person to whom a license has been issued shall be entitled to hunt, pursue or kill the birds or animals referred to in section 1 of this act, without at the time of such hunting, pursuing and killing having such license in his or her possession, and to exhibit the same for inspection to anyone demanding an inspection.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That the owners of farm lands, their children or tenants, shall without procuring such license have the right to hunt, pursue and kill said enumerated birds and animals on the said farm lands of which he or they are the bona fide owners or tenants during the season when it is lawful to kill such birds or animals.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That the clerk of the Circuit Court for Dorchester County shall semi-annually on the first day of January and July of each and every year transmit to the treasurer of said Dorchester county all the moneys received by him for licenses after deducting the fees herein authorized; the said amount so received by the treasurer shall be placed to the credit of a fund to be known as the "County Game Protection Fund," and shall be disbursed by the county treasurer on warrants signed by the County Game Warden, approved by the County Commissioners and filed with the treasurer, who shall draw his warrant therefor.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That the amount in the County Game Protection Fund shall be annually expended by the County Game Warden, with the approval of the County Commissioners for the protection and propagation of such game birds and animals as are herein enumerated.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the salary of the County Game Warden shall be paid out of the money of the County Game Protection Fund, and likewise the other expenses of his office, but that no part of said fund shall be used, at any time, for any purpose other than for the protection and propagation of game.

SEC. 7. Be it further enacted, That any person found guilty of hunting, pursuing or killing any birds or animals referred to in this act, without having a license in his or her possession, except as herein provided or of refusing to show said license when demanded by anyone, or violating any of the other provi-