

sions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of the said county shall be fined any sum not less than five dollars, nor more than twenty-five dollars for each and every offense, and shall stand committed to the county jail until such fine and costs are paid, but such imprisonment shall not exceed twenty-five days for each offense. Any deputy game warden, constable or other person who shall procure the conviction of any persons for violating the provisions of this act shall receive half of the fine recovered, the remaining half shall be paid over to the county treasurer to the account of the County Game Protection Fund, and to be used as hereinbefore provided.

SEC. 8. Be it further enacted, That the County Game Warden and any deputy or deputies, or any officers, shall be exempt from any liability because of the enforcement of this act, or any arrest that they may make in the performance of their duties.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this act shall be construed as to in any way repeal any existing law prohibiting trespassing.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners of Dorchester County, shall, on or before the first day of June, A. D. 1912, and every two years thereafter, appoint a game warden for Dorchester county, to be called the County Game Warden of Dorchester County, who shall hold office for two years, or until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified whichever shall first occur. The person so appointed Game Warden of Dorchester County, shall have been a resident and voted in said county for not less than two years next preceding his appointment. And such person so appointed must be first recommended by the Dorchester County Game and Fish Protective Association. That the said Game Warden of Dorchester County, shall receive a salary of six hundred dollars ($600), payable quarterly accounting from the first day of June, in the year of his appointment, and the reasonable expense of his office not to exceed $200 in any one year, all of which is to be paid out of the County Game Protection Fund, providing the receipts of said fund equal that amount, and if necessary he may appoint deputies, and all money over and above said amounts shall be used in procuring and propagating game in Dorchester county. The said County Game Warden may be removed at any time by the County Commissioners of Dorchester County, after it shall have been affirmatively made to appear upon written charges that the said Game Warden has neglected or improperly discharged the