

regulations as may be it be deemed necessary for the government of the same.

The president and directors shall have full power and authority to exercise all the corporate powers of said corporation.

The service of any legal process on the president or on any director shall be deemed a service on said corporation.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 15, 1912.

CHAPTER 345.

AN ACT to provide for a commission composed of James Rittenhouse, George W. Yellott and Asa B. Gardiner, Jr. to be known as "The Good Roads Commission of Baltimore County," with full powers to construct and improve a system of improved public roads, highways and bridges in Baltimore county, Maryland; and providing also the ways and means for the construction and improvement thereof by a bond issue of one million five hundred thousand dollars to be a lien upon the assessable property in said county; and repealing Chapter 744 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland passed at the Session of 1910.

Good Roads Commission.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a commission of three members to be known as the "Good Roads Commission of Baltimore County," is hereby created and established, and that James Rittenhouse, George W. Yellott and Asa B. Gardiner, Jr., and their successors appointed in the event of a vacancy on said commission as hereinafter provided, shall constitute such commission. Said commission shall continue in existence until the work provided for in this act has been completed as hereinafter provided. Immediately upon the passage of this act, each of said commissioners shall qualify by taking an oath before the clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County that he will, to the best of his skill and ability, faithfully and diligently execute his duties as Good Roads Commissioner of Baltimore county; that he will not, during the time he remains a member of such commission, directly or indirectly, become pecuniarily interested in any contract for work done or materials, implements or