

equipment furnished for or about the work provided for in this act, or for or about the roads and bridges in Baltimore county, and that he will not, directly or indirectly, receive any pecuniary profit or reward for or in connection with his duties as such Good Roads Commissioner except as provided in this act. Each member of the commission shall give bond to the State of Maryland for the faithful performance of his duties in the penalty of ten thousand dollars by personal or corporate surety satisfactory to the clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County. Each member of the commission shall receive as compensation for his services as such a salary of two thousand dollars per annum. Immediately upon the taking the oath aforesaid, the members of said commission shall organize by the election of a chairman, who shall preside over its meetings and perform such other duties as are imposed upon him by this act or as may be assigned to him by said commission. They shall also adopt such rules of procedure as may seem to them requisite and necessary. The majority of the members of said commission, when assembled at a regular or special meeting, duly called, shall be a lawful quorum for the transaction of business, and in all business of said commission a majority vote shall control. Said Good Roads Commission shall meet not less than once in each week at its office in Towson to transact the business connected with its duties under this act, and shall hold such other meetings and at such other places as the proper discharge of its duties may require. Said commission shall elect a secretary, not a member of the commission, who shall be removable at the pleasure of said commission, and who shall receive such compensation as the commission shall determine, not exceeding the sum of eighteen hundred dollars per annum. He shall enter in the journal of said commission full and accurate minutes of all meetings and records of all proceedings of said commission, to be attested each week by the chairman of said commission and his own signature. He shall also keep books showing in detail the work done and the expenditure of money upon each section or portion of roads and bridges constructed or improved under the direction of said commission in each election district of Baltimore county, and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by said commission. Said commission shall semi-annually issue a bulletin in printed form for general distribution showing in detail an approximate statement of the work completed and the work under contract and not completed in each election district of Baltimore county and the cost thereof, together with such other items of interest in connection with its work under