

this act as may be deemed of interest to the public. On or before May first in each year said commission shall cause to have been made by a certified public accountant an audit of its receipts and disbursements, which audit shall be published in full in the bulletin aforesaid, and a synopsis of which, likewise to be prepared by said accountant, shall be published in such of the county papers published in Baltimore county as may be designated by said commission. All maps, plans and statistics made, collected and compiled under the direction of said commission shall be preserved in its office in such manner as to be readily accessible at all times. All such books, records, accounts and other data of said commission shall be public records, and shall be open at all times to inspection by any taxpayer of Baltimore county. Said commission shall also have authority to employ such bookkeepers, clerks, stenographers and other assistants for office duties as may from time to time actually be required for the proper performance of the duties in this act prescribed. The salaries of the members of said commission, its counsel, its secretary and other office-assistants, together with all its office expenses, shall be paid by the County Commissioners out of the general road and bridge fund of the county. The salary of the chief engineer and the salaries and wages of his assistants, together with all other expenses incurred in connection with the work of the commission, shall be paid out of the fund of $1,500,000.00 to be raised as hereinafter provided and apportioned among and charged to the accounts of the respective districts on behalf of which the same are incurred. It shall be the duty of the members of the commission from time to time to travel over and personally inspect the public highways in the several parts of the county and the work being done on the same, in order that they may have, as far as possible, personal knowledge of the progress of such work and the requirements of the several sections of the county in reference to the matter of roads in said county, as well as of the progress from time to time of the work of such commission. The Governor may remove from office any member of the Good Roads Commission of Baltimore County upon proof of malfeasance in office after specific charges in writing have been filed and after giving the member against whom such charges are filed a public hearing upon the same. In the event of the death, resignation or removal of James Rittenhouse, or George W. Yellott, Democratic members of said commission, or their successors appointed as herein provided, the Governor shall request the Democratic State Central Committee for Baltimore County to designate four persons who shall be residents,
