

of the duties imposed by this act, or for the breach on its part of any contract entered into by it, the said Good Roads Commission of Baltimore County shall be liable in damages, at the suit of the person or persons injured thereby, but it shall be subject to no greater liability in the premises than that now imposed by law upon the Highways Commission of Baltimore County; and any final decree or judgment obtained against said Good Roads Commission of Baltimore County, in any suit or action, and all costs adjudged against it, shall be satisfied and paid in due course, by the County Commissioners of Baltimore County, out of such funds as are used to satisfy claims against the said County Commissioners. Whenever it shall become necessary in the opinion of the Goods Roads Commission to open, alter, re-locate or close any road in the course of the road improvements contemplated by this act, said commission, if it elects so to proceed, in lieu of proceeding by condemnation as elsewhere in this section provided, may file a petition to such end with the Highways Commission of Baltimore County as though it were a freeholder of said county, whereupon, the proceedings shall be as provided in section 354 of Article 3 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Baltimore County as amended and re-enacted by Chapter 495 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland passed at the Session of 1908; and upon the conclusion of such proceedings, said road shall pass into the control of said Good Roads Commission for improvement under the provisions of this act, and revert to the control of the Highways Commission of said county upon the completion of said improvements as in the case of other roads improved under this act.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the chief engineer of the Good Roads Commission and the assistants designated by him shall have direct supervision and control over all road and bridge work contracted for or done by the Good Roads Commission under the provisions of this act. No specifications or requests for proposals for any such work shall be advertised and no contract let without the approval thereof by said chief engineer in writing having first been had. Said Good Roads Commission shall have authority to employ by and with the approval of the chief engineer, such assistance and other employees as may be necessary to supervise and carry on the work to be performed in each of the said fifteen election districts of Baltimore county, under the provisions of this act; such assistants and employees shall receive for
