

CHAPTER 356.

AN ACT to declare the sanction and consent of the General Assembly of Maryland to any legacies now existing or hereafter given or appropriations made or hereafter to be made by the General Assembly of Maryland or by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to The Exeter Street Rescue Home for Women.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all legacies now existing or hereafter given by persons dying, after the date of this act, and all appropriations made or hereafter to be made by the General Assembly of Maryland, or by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, and intended for The Exeter Street Rescue Home for Women, but given or made by its former name of The Home for Fallen Women of Baltimore City instead of its present name, shall remain and inure to the benefit of The Exeter Street Rescue Home for Women.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 11, 1912.

CHAPTER 357.

AN ACT to prevent horses, mules, horned cattle, swine and geese from running at large unattended in the village of Lansdowne, Baltimore county; defining the limits of said village; and providing a penalty for the violation thereof.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful for any person to allow his, her or their stock of any kind, including horses, mules, cattle, goats and swine, or geese, to go at large unattended in the village of Lansdowne. The metes and bounds of the village of Lansdowne shall be deemed and taken to be as follows: Being bound on the west by the Hammond's Ferry road, on the north by a road known as the Mine Bank road, said to be twenty feet wide, extending from the Hammond Ferry road to the property of the Whittaker estate; on the east by the property of the Whittaker estate, Mt. Zion's cemetery and Gitting's estate, and on the south by property known as the Stransbaugh estate and the ore road leading through said property.
