

SEC. 2. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any person who may find any horse, mule, cattle, goats, swine or geese going at large and unattended by a keeper in said village, may impound the same, or report the fact to some constable or deputy sheriff, who shall impound same, under the penalty of two dollars for each head of stock or lot of geese he may neglect to impound, upon information given to him; and the constable or other person impounding any stock or geese shall, within twenty-four hours after impounding, post up in at least three public places within the limits above prescribed, a written or printed description of the stock, goats, swine or geese impounded, which written description shall contain a notice that if the owner of the same does not claim them within five days from the date of posting such notice, the stock or geese impounded will be sold to pay costs of impounding and damages.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That if the owner of any stock or geese impounded shall claim the same before a sale thereof, such owner shall pay to the person impounding one dollar for each horse, mule, hog, goat or head of cattle, and each lot of geese containing two or more, as a fee for the person impounding, and one dollar per head for each day or part of day they may have been kept, and all costs of advertising; and in default of paying the same, or if the owner does not claim the stock or geese impounded within five days from the time of posting the notice aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the person impounding to sell the stock, swine or geese impounded, for cash, at public sale, within said limits, upon giving four days' notice of the time and place of sale, by written or printed bills, to be posted in at least five public places within the above described limits; and from the proceeds of such sale to deduct the costs and charges hereinbefore allowed, the costs of sale and the penalties prescribed in the succeeding section, and the balance of the sale, if there be any, shall be paid over to the owner of the stock or geese sold, if applied for within sixty days from the time of sale.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the owner of any horse, mule, cattle, goats or swine, or lot of geese, including two or more, who shall allow the same to go at large and unattended by a keeper, within the village of Lansdowne, shall be liable to a fine of two dollars for each horse, mule, head of cattle, goat or swine, or lot of geese, so allowed to run at large unattended, in addition to the charges and costs above provided for, to be imposed by a justice of the peace within the limits aforesaid; and it shall
