

removed at any time by the said County Road Engineer, the County Commissioners shall fix the compensation of such foreman; he shall keep the time of all employees under him and a correct record of material used and make daily report thereof and certify bills for the same to the County Road Engineer, to be by him approved before being presented to the County Commissioners for payment; the County Commissioners may, in their discretion, and from the district road fund, provide each district with necessary teams and implements for working the roads. General work on the roads shall be done during the months of April to November, both inclusive, and during the months of December, January, February and March the surfacing of roads with hard material may be done with the county teams and machinery under the supervision of the County Road Engineer, provided, that no hard material shall be put on any road after the passage of this act unless such road has been reconstructed according to plans and specifications of the County Road Engineer, which plans and specifications shall be followed in all respects.

191. The County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County are authorized and empowered to control and regulate the public roads and bridges in said county, subject to the provisions of this act; they shall sit as a road board once in each month, and oftener if deemed by them necessary to the public interests, for the consideration and determination of matters relating to county roads and bridges; and at such meetings each County Commissioner resident in a road district shall acquaint the board with conditions affecting roads and bridges in said district, the County Commissioners elected from the Sixth Election District, or the City of Annapolis, shall be the secretary of the road board, and as such act at its meetings; and he shall also be the auditor of the road and bridge funds and accounts; it shall be the duty of each of the other County Commissioners to make careful inspection of road work in his district, according to rules to be adopted by the board, in lieu of all other compensation; per diem or mileage for the duties imposed by this section, the said County Commissioners shall each receive a salary of three hundred dollars per year in addition to such salary as is now provided for them by law.

Approved April 8, 1912.