

tenance of an efficient police force. To keep the streets, crossings and sidewalks clean and in repair. To provide for the necessary lighting of streets, sidewalks and crosswalks. To authorize the use of the streets for railways and other purposes, to regulate the same as to grades, crossings, paving, repairing and running of cars. To impose a tax on fowls, dogs, or other animals running at large, or to prohibit the same. To maintain the public health and cleanliness of the town. To provide for the necessary inspection of all premises. To prohibit within the corporate limits any business that would injuriously effect the sanitary condition thereof. To regulate the location inspection and cleaning of stables, pens, cowyards, dairies, factories and other places of business likely to become detrimental to health. To prevent the sale of adulterated or decayed food, and suppress and remove all nuisance. To specify the character of the fixtures of all outhouses or closets, and regulate the mode of removal of the contents and disposal of the same, and to regulate or prohibit the construction or maintenance of cess-pools, or other depositories of filth within the corporate limits. To prescribe, fines, penalties and forfeitures for the violations of their ordinances, including the committal of offenders, to the county jail or a police station till the penalty and costs are paid.

SEC. 12. The Council shall have the same power as the State Board of Health within the corporate limits of said town. They may adopt and provide an efficient system of drainage. They may adopt suitable measures for the removal of garbage and sewage, and fix the amount to be paid therefore.

SEC. 13. On or before the first Monday in June in each year the Council shall levy a tax on all the real and personal property within the corporate limits of said town which shall not in any of the first five years, exceed twenty cents on the hundred dollars worth of assessable property in accordance with its last valuation by the county assessors, and shall not be increased to more than thirty cents a year on the same within the next five years, without the approval of a two-thirds majority of the voters of said town.

SEC. 14. All taxes levied by the Council shall be due and payable immediately upon the levy thereof at the office of the clerk and the ordinance providing for the levy of taxes, shall of itself constitute the authority for the same, and no other warrant or evidence of authority shall be requested. If any taxpayer shall fail to pay all the taxes due on his property within thirty days from the levy thereof the claim shall be put into the hands of the Marshal with authority to collect the same