CHAPTER 405.

AN ACT to authorize Eugene Crocheron to construct in front of his land on Tedious Creek, in Straits Election District, in Dorchester county, Maryland, a wharf or road extending out into the waters of Tedious Creek, an arm of Fishing Bay.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Eugene Crocheron, of Crocheron, in Dorchester county, State of Maryland, be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to construct a wharf or road at and adjoining the land of the said Eugene Crocheron bordering on Tedious Creek, an arm of Fishing Bay, in Straits Election District, in Dorchester county, Maryland, said wharf or road to extend from the said land of the said Eugene Crocheron out into the waters of the said Tedious Creek for a distance not exceeding two hundred yards, to be of a width not exceeding one hundred feet, and to be immediately in front of the said land of the said Eugene Crocheron, and when completed to be in such a position that it would be included within the lines of the said land of the said Eugene Crocheron, if the lines of said land should be extended out into the waters of said Tedious Creek for a distance the length of said hereby authorized wharf or road; provided, such wharf or road be constructed and established on or before the first day of January, A. D. 1916.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That said wharf or road when so constructed or erected shall be the property of the said Eugene Crocheron, his heirs and assigns forever.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 8, 1912.
