

CHAPTER 21.

AN ACT making the Annotated Code of the Public Civil Laws of Maryland, edited by George P. Bagby, evidence of the Public General Laws of the State in force prior to the first Wednesday in January, nineteen hundred and twelve (1912), save those relating exclusively to Crimes and Punishments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Annotated Code of the Public Civil Laws of Maryland, edited by George P. Bagby, be and it is hereby legalized, and in all the Courts of the State, before all the Justices of the Peace of the State and by all the public officials of the State, shall be deemed as, and taken to be, evidence of the Public General Laws contained in the Code of 1888 and in the subsequent Acts of Assembly in force prior to the first Wednesday in January, nineteen hundred and twelve (1912), save and excepting such of said laws and acts as relate exclusively to "Crimes and Punishments."

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 13th, 1912.

CHAPTER 22.

AN ACT to legalize the Code of Public Local Laws of Prince George's county, as codified by Marion Duckett and T. Van Clagett under the provisions of the Acts of 1910, Chapter 31, to provide for the addition thereto of the local laws affecting said county passed in the year 1912, and the publication of said Code and addition, and to provide for the payment for such addition and publication.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Code of Public Local Laws of Prince George's county, Maryland, as codified by Marion Duckett and T. Van Clagett under the provisions of the Acts of 1910, Chapter 31, be and the same is hereby legalized and shall be deemed and taken in all Courts of this State and by all justices of the peace of this State, and by all public officers of this State, to be evidence of the Public Local Laws of Prince George's county, of the State of Maryland, as contained in Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws of 1888, entitled "Prince George's