CHAPTER 414.

AN ACT to pay the claim of Captain Edward N. Dixon, deputy commander of the Oyster Navy, for money expended in defending himself upon a charge of murder.

WHEREAS, Captain Edward N. Dixon, deputy commander of the Oyster Navy, in charge of the schooner "Daisy Archer," was in November last arrested in Anne Arundel county upon a charge of assault with intent to kill and later upon a charge of murder; and,

WHEREAS, Upon hearing under habeas corpus proceedings it was determined that the Criminal Court of Baltimore City had jurisdiction of such offense as he had committed; and,

WHEREAS, He was duly indicted in Baltimore City upon a charge of murder which case was removed to the Circuit Court for Harford County for trial, and upon said trial, which was begun in said Circuit Court for Harford County on Monday, February 19, 1912, said Captain Dixon was duly acquitted and adjudged not guilty of said crime; and,
