

be divided equally with Epiphany College, one hundred dollars, as shown by the said last will and testament; recorded in the office of the Register of Wills for Baltimore City in Liber (Will) H. W. J. No. 108, folio , etc.

SEC. 2. And also to the following legacies contained in the last will and testament of Honorah F. Kell, late of Baltimore City, deceased, which is recorded in the office of the Register of Wills for said city, in Liber (Wills) N. N. J. No. 112, folio , etc., viz:

1. To James Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop of Baltimore and his successors in office according to the organization and government of the Roman Catholic Church, a certain picture and jewelry therein named for the use of St. Gregory's Church.

2. A bequest to Reverend Owen Corrigan of one hundred dollars for masses to be said for the soul of the testatrix in St. Gregory's Church.

Approved April 5, 1912.

CHAPTER 420.

AN ACT regulating the construction of fencing along the public highways of Frederick county, Maryland.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be unlawful after the passage of this act for anyone owning land along and abutting on the public highways of Frederick county to build or renew fencing along said public highways of Frederick county, except it be a barnyard or garden fence, with any other material than wire, excepting the posts used for the construction of said fencing, which may be wood, iron or other material.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all new construction or renewals of old fencing requiring new material in part shall be subject to the provisions of this act.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the Board of County Commissioners of Frederick County and the Road Engineer, if there be a Road Engineer in said county, shall have full control and power to execute the provisions of this act.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That in any case a refusal on the part of the landowner (who elects to have a fence along the public highway) to comply with the provisions of this act, it shall then be lawful under this act for the said