

county," and the Public Local Laws applicable to said county passed subsequent thereto, except as repealed or modified by any act of the General Assembly of 1912.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted, That the County Commissioners of Prince George's county are hereby authorized to employ Marion Duckett, T. Van Claggett and such other members of the bar of said county as they may see fit, to add to said Code so that the same may be included in the said codification when published as an appendix thereto, the Acts of 1912 applicable to Prince George's county, and to index the said acts in the index of said Code, and for such work in connection therewith and for supervising the publication of said Code the said Marion Duckett, T. Van Claggett and any other attorney or attorneys so employed shall be paid reasonable compensation not to exceed five hundred dollars in all, to be levied by the County Commissioners and paid when printed copies of said Code, as herein-after provided for, are delivered to the said Commissioners.

SEC. 3. Be it enacted, That when the Acts of 1912, as hereinbefore provided for, have been incorporated in said Code, the County Commissioners shall cause to be published five hundred copies thereof, preserving therein the indices, reference to statutes, chapter and section headings, reference to the Court of Appeals and all other recitals of reference therein contained. The size of type and size of page and quality of paper to be the same as the published book of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1910. The manner of such publication shall be as follows: The County Commissioners upon the receipt of the said addition to the said Code as now codified shall advertise in at least one newspaper published in Washington and one in Baltimore for three successive weeks for bids for publication of said book, and shall award the same to the lowest responsible bidder. The County Commissioners shall levy the amount of said bid and pay the same to the person printing or publishing said books, after such books have been approved by the said Marion Duckett, T. Van Claggett and delivered to the Commissioners. At any time after the receipt of the said books, upon demand, the Commissioners shall deliver free of cost one to each justice of the peace of Prince George's county, and a copy each to the judges of the Circuit Court, to the State's Attorney, to the State Librarian, to the Clerk of the Circuit Court, and to the Register of Wills, and shall sell the residue of said books to any person applying for the same at a price per book not less than twenty per cent. above the cost of printing and binding such book, this price to be in no case less than
