

or will reside therein after his appointment; before entering upon the duties of his office he shall make oath before a justice of the peace or notary public for Caroline county that he will faithfully and impartially perform the duties imposed upon him by the act of incorporation and the by-laws and ordinances of said Commissionera, and shall execute to the State of Maryland a bond with two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by said Commissioners, in such penalty as they shall prescribe, conditioned that he shall well and faithfully perform the duties of said office in all things appertaining thereto according to law, and the ordinances of said Commissioners, and shall well and truly collect and pay over to the treasurer of said corporation all taxes levied by the Commissioners and all other sums of money that may be received by him for the use of said corporation; provided, nevertheless, that the Commissioners may appoint anyone, resident or non-resident of the town, to collect taxes, license fees, fines, costs, dog taxes, cost of killing dogs and bitches on which taxes are unpaid, or to perform any other service that the Commissioners may direct, whenever the service of said persons, in addition to its regular officers, may be deemed by the Commissioners necessary for the welfare of the said town; and provided further, that any such persons so appointed shall take the oath prescribed in this section for the bailiff.

SEC. 24. And be it enacted, That immediately upon the receipt by him of the books specified in the preceding section the bailiff or other person as indicated in section 15 shall proceed to collect all taxes levied by said Commissioners and to pay over the same when required so to do by the said Commissioners to the treasurer of said corporation; and if any person shall neglect or refuse to pay said taxes on demand, then the bailiff or other person as indicated in said section 15 shall furnish to such person an account showing the aggregate of his tax, or if he be absent deliver the same at the place of his last residence; and unless the same be paid to the bailiff or other person or persons within thirty days after such account shall have been delivered, the bailiff or other person as indicated in said section 15 may seize and sell the property assessed; or if the same be goods and chattels and can not be found as conveniently, may seize and sell any other of the goods and chattels, land or tenements of the person or persons so refusing or neglecting to pay, after giving at least twenty days' notice of the time and place of sale by written or printed handbills set up in two public places in said town or printed in some newspaper published there.