

pany, of which due notice shall be given by publication in one or more county newspapers of such selections or designation to accept service, or any change thereof, and in case of failure of said railway company to comply with the foregoing provisions of this section at any time service of summons upon any conductor or motorman of said railway company shall be sufficient for the imposition of the aforesaid fine at a trial and conviction in due course of law provided; and it is hereby declared that each and every provision of this act depends upon and is in consideration of each and every other provision thereof, and that this act must be read and construed as a whole; and provided further, that in view of the mutual and reciprocal advantages provided herein, both to the traveling public, and to the said railway company, no statute of the State of Maryland in general terms shall be construed to modify or repeal this act, in whole or in part, unless this act and the special provisions thereof sought to be effected shall be specifically named in such statute.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this act contained is intended or shall be taken or construed as relieving the said corporation from the provisions of Chapter 180 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1910, known as the Public Service Commission Law, or any amendment thereto, beyond the specific provisions of this act, provided however, that said corporation before commencing work or construction upon any portion of any State road or roads included in the State roads system, constructed or adopted as a part of the State Roads system, shall apply to the State Roads Commission for a permit to construct its lines and overhead equipments upon or over any such road, and all work done under such permit, upon any such road or crossing of said road, shall be done in conformity with the rules and regulations of the State Roads Commission, and located as designated by said Commission, and in full compliance with the provisions and terms of any permit granted by said State Roads Commission and to the satisfaction of said commission; and before doing any such work the said corporation shall file with the said State Roads Commission, if required a bond in such amount and penalty as the State Roads Commission may require for the satisfactory performance of all the terms and conditions of said permit.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect on the first day of May, 1912.

Approved April 8, 1912.