

tion 203A, and to be known as section 203B, said two sections as herein enacted to read as follows:

• SEC. 203A. That in every criminal case brought before any justice of the peace for Dorchester county, wherein the defendant is found guilty, upon confession or trial, and is fined, it shall be the duty of the justice of the peace to collect the fine at once, and on the first Monday of every month to make out a list of all the cases in which a fine was imposed, and in said list he shall give the date of each fine, and he shall credit himself with every fine which the defendant refused or failed to pay, and was thereupon ordered to stand committed till fine and costs were paid; and whenever required by the Treasurer of Dorchester County any such justice of the peace shall produce before said Treasurer his criminal docket; such justice of the peace shall on the first Monday of every month, as aforesaid, pay to the Treasurer of Dorchester County the amount of the fines which he has collected to said date and has not before paid over to the said treasurer, and all fines received by the said treasurer as aforesaid shall be applied by the County Commissioners toward county expenses in Dorchester county; and if the said justice of the peace refuses or fails to pay over to the Treasurer of Dorchester County the amount of such fines collected by him for one month after he is herein required to pay the same over, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof he shall be sentenced to be confined in the county jail for not more than six months and pay a fine equal to the amount of the money collected by him and not paid over.

SEC. 203B. Each of said justices of the peace before entering upon the duties of his office shall give to the State of Maryland a good and sufficient bond, with the security to be approved by the County Commissioners of Dorchester County, in the penalty of five hundred dollars; said bond to be conditioned that each of said justices will truly and faithfully discharge, execute and perform all and singular the duties and obligations of justices of the peace, and that he will account for and pay over to the County Commissioners of Dorchester County, or to whomsoever else may be hereafter or otherwise designated by law, as the proper recipient thereof, all fines, penalties and forfeitures, or the portion thereof which he is bound to account for and pay over as aforesaid; and that he will faithfully and truly account for and pay over to the person or corporation entitled to receive the same all money belonging to such person or corporation which may come into his hands as justice of the peace; provided, however, that nothing in the preceding sections 203A and
