

as said sections 55 and 55A were amended and enacted, respectively, by the General Assembly of 1902, Chapters 288 and 17, respectively, be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments; and that a new section be and the same is hereby added thereto to follow immediately after section 57 and to be known as section 57A, so that all of said sections shall read as follows:

SEC. 53. It shall not be lawful to kill in Montgomery county any robin, bluebird, thrush, martin, mocking bird, barn swallow, mason swallow, lark, oriole, redbird, catbird, chipping or summer sparrow; wren, pewit, goldfinch, sapsucker, hanging bird, woodpecker, fly catcher and tanager; and it shall not be lawful for any person to unnecessarily destroy the nests or take the eggs or the young of any of the birds protected by this section; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be construed as to prevent the killing of or capture of crows, hawks, owls or other kinds of birds of prey. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section on conviction thereof shall be fined not more than five dollars for each and every offense, to be recovered in the name of the State before a justice of the peace, said fine to be applied to the county school fund.

SEC. 54. No person shall hunt, trap, shoot or in any manner catch, kill or take or have in his possession in Montgomery county any partridge or quail between the twentieth day of December and the tenth day of November, nor any woodcock between the first day of January and the first day of July, nor any pheasant between the first day of January and the first day of September, nor any wild turkey between the first day of March and the first day of November, nor any gray squirrel between the fifteenth day of December and the fifteenth day of August, nor any rabbit between the twentieth day of December and the tenth day of November, nor any raccoon, nor any opossum between the fifteenth day of January and the fifteenth day of October, nor any muskrat between the first day of March and the fifteenth day of November of each and every year; and it shall not be lawful for any person in said county at any time to trap, net or ensnare any of the animals, birds or fowls enumerated in this section, or to set any trap, net or snare in or about any fox den, or to have in his possession any trap, net or snare with the intent or purpose to capture or kill any such animals, birds or fowls, and it shall also be unlawful for any person to track when the snow is on the ground any of the animals, birds or fowls enumerated in this section for the purpose to capture or kill such animals, birds or fowls, and any