

person violating any of the provisions of this section on conviction thereof shall be fined not more than ten dollars for each and every offense, or be confined in the county jail for a period of not more than twenty days, in the discretion of the Court, said fine to be recovered in the name of the State before a justice of the peace, one-half of the fine to go to the informer, the other one-half for the benefit of the public school fund of the county.

SEC. 55. It shall not be lawful for any person, corporation or company to sell for the purpose of being carried out of the county, or to carry out of the county for the purpose of selling or to trap, shoot or in any manner catch or kill, or have in possession, any partridge or quail, woodcock or rabbit after the same has been killed, for any purpose, except for consumption or food within Montgomery county; provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent the barter or sale of said game for home consumption only by residents of said county; provided also, that nothing herein shall prevent non-residents who have a license to hunt in said county from taking with them out of said county, or to carry out of the county for the purpose of selling killed in said county, and any person, corporation or company violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of said county shall be fined not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars for each and every offense, one-half of said fine to go to the informer or informers upon whose evidence the conviction is obtained, the other one-half to go to the county school fund.

SEC. 55A. It shall not be lawful for any person not a bona fide resident of said county to hunt or shoot any partridge or quail, pheasant, woodcock, wild turkey, wild duck, squirrel, rabbit, raccoon or opossum in said county without having first obtained from the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county a license permitting the person therein named to hunt or shoot said game in said county for one year from the day on which such license was issued, and such license shall not be transferable. The person named therein or party procuring such license shall pay to said clerk therefor the sum of fifteen dollars per year, which amount shall be paid by said clerk to the Board of School Commissioners of said county for the use of the public schools of said county, and fifty cents to the clerk as a fee for issuing such license; and any non-resident convicted before a justice of the peace of said county for gunning therein without first having obtained the license aforesaid shall be fined twenty-five dollars for each and every offense; on failure to pay
