

Laws of Prince George's county, providing for the selection, drawing and summoning of jurors for said county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section 177A of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Prince George's County," sub-title "Jurors," as enacted by Chapter 560 of the Acts of 1904, be and the same is hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That section 178 of Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Prince George's County," as amended by Chapter 560 of the Acts of 1904, be and the same is hereby repealed, and re-enacted with amendments, and that section 179 of Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Prince George's County," sub-title "Jurors," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so that said sections shall read as follows:

SEC. 178. That in Prince George's county there shall be procured by the Clerk of the Circuit Court of said county a jury box of convenient size, which shall be divided into as many compartments as there may from time to time be election districts in said county, and which compartments shall be numbered to correspond with the election districts of the county as they now exist or may be increased or decreased from time to time; that when the names of the persons shall have been selected to serve as jurors by the judge or judges of the Court in the manner prescribed in Article 51 of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Jurors," the judge or judges may before the convening of the term of Court to which said jurors are to be summoned, of the names so selected choose and appoint one who shall be foreman of the grand jury, and shall cause all the names selected, except the name of the foreman previously chosen, to be placed by said judge or judges in said compartments of said box respectively which bear the numbers of the districts where the persons so selected respectively reside. And it shall be the duty of the said judge or judges, when selecting the panel of two hundred persons as provided for in section 7 of Article 51 of the Code of Public General Laws, to distribute the names of the persons on said panel as nearly equal as may be possible among said compartments. And the judge or judges, in addition to the foreman so selected, shall draw from said compartments in all seventy-two names. And from all of said compartments an equal number of names as near as possible. Provided, that if the foreman so selected should die or for any cause should be disqualified or be excused by the Court, the said judge or judges, after drawing another name
