

meetings of the stockholders may be called by the president or directors or a majority of them, according to such rules as may be adopted by the by-laws of said company, and the board of directors may meet as often as necessary for the transaction of business of the company. Ten days' notice shall be given by publication in two newspapers, one published in Allegany county, Maryland, and the other published in Mineral county, West Virginia, of the time and place of holding the general annual meeting of the stockholders, and of the election of directors of the same as above referred to.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That said company shall have and enjoy all the general powers, provisions and privileges and be subject to the general regulations contained in Article 23 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, the said article known also as the article providing for the formation, powers and regulations of corporations, so far as the same may not be inconsistent or in conflict with the special or general regulations, or provisions, powers, rights and advantages conferred or intended to be conferred by this act.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the company hereby incorporated shall have power to make, construct and maintain a railroad, tracks and sidings as they may deem expedient for the transportation of passengers, freight, merchandise and produce, in cars propelled by electricity in any form, or other improved motor power other than steam, with the right to erect and maintain such poles and wires and appurtenances as may be necessary, and to build the necessary switches to its car barns and power-houses, and also to build the necessary turnouts and connections in the Town of Westernport, as herein provided, to wit:

Commencing or beginning at the terminus of the Cumberland and Westernport Electric Railway in said Town of Westernport, said terminus being on the River Road in said town, and running thence in a southeastwardly direction along said River Road, three-quarters of a mile within the corporate limits of said Town of Westernport; then with a county road on the north side of the Potomac River about three and one-half miles ($3\frac{1}{2}$); thence leaving said county road and running parallel with the north side of the Potomac River southeastwardly for about three-quarters of a mile to meet the aforesaid county road again, and with said road, southeastwardly about one-half mile to the village of McCooles, in Allegany county, Maryland, opposite the Town of Keyser, Mineral county, West Virginia; thence southwestwardly about one thousand (1,000) feet to and across the Potomac River by a suitable bridge struc-