

are imposed, and shall be collected by the Collector of Water Rents and Licenses of Baltimore City, in the same manner as water rents are now collected, and by the same remedies, and all the duties and obligations now imposed or that may be imposed upon the said Collector of Water Rents and Licenses, by existing laws or ordinances, or any amendment or amendments thereto, in reference to collecting and accounting for water rents, are hereby imposed upon him in reference to collecting and accounting for sewer rents imposed by this act.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That the height or number of stories and width of buildings (as those terms are hereinbefore used) shall be construed to mean the height, or number of stories, and width at the front of such buildings; and that the front (as herein used), in case the building or lot abuts upon, or might be said to front upon, two streets, shall be construed to mean the narrow front of such building or lot; and that an urinal shall be considered a flush closet fixture within the meaning of this act, as well as a seat fixture.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its approval by a majority of the votes of the legal voters of the City of Baltimore cast thereon at the time and place hereinafter designated and shall not go into effect unless so approved.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That this act shall be submitted to the legal voters of the City of Baltimore for their approval or disapproval at the election to be held in the City of Baltimore on Tuesday, the fifth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve; and spaces shall be provided upon the ballot used at said election for the voters to mark their approval or disapproval of this act, in two lines as follows, which lines shall be placed immediately under the title of this act which is to be printed on said bill:

FOR THE SEWER RENT ACT

AGAINST THE SEWER RENT ACT

If a majority of the voters who vote upon said act shall vote for the same, then it shall at once go into effect; but if a majority of said voters vote against the same it shall not go into effect.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That a copy of this act and notice of the time of holding said election and of the submission of this act to the voters at said election shall be pub-