

County now in effect shall continue and remain in effect as if this act had never been passed, and the fines and penalties now provided by law, either the public local laws of St. Mary's County or public general law shall be imposed as if this act had not been passed.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That no election for or against the sale of liquors in St. Mary's county shall be held after the election provided for in this act, oftener than once in four years, and then only by a special act.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act, so far as they are inconsistent, be and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the first day of May, nineteen hundred and thirteen.

Approved April 15, 1912.

CHAPTER 494.

AN ACT granting to Joseph B. McCall, his heirs and assigns, the right to construct and maintain a pier or wharf in the waters of the Chesapeake Bay from and on the front of his lots of land binding on said waters in Cecil county, Maryland.

WHEREAS, Joseph B. McCall is the owner of a lot of land situate near Carpenter's Point in said Cecil county and fronting on the waters of the Chesapeake Bay at or near the mouth of Principio or Furnace Creek, and being the same lot of land which is described in a deed from William H. Simcoe and others to him, dated the 2nd day of February, 1912, and recorded in Liber C. K. No. 4, folio 372, one of the Land Record Books of said Cecil county;

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the right is hereby granted to the said Joseph B. McCall, his heirs and assigns, to construct and maintain a pier and wharf from and on the front of his aforesaid lot of land and extending into the waters of the Chesapeake Bay to and for a distance not exceeding one thousand feet, but not to enter or cross the channel thereof.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 8, 1912.