

qualification of their respective successors after the election to be held on the first Monday in May, 1913, as hereinafter provided; and in the event of death or resignation of any of said persons so named herein the vacancy shall be filled by the said Common Council for the period intervening between such time and the first election to be held as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 4. The registered voters of said town, who shall possess the qualifications necessary to entitle them to registration and who shall have duly registered as hereinafter provided, shall on the first Monday in May, 1913, and thereafter annually on the first Monday in May in each year, select at such place as may be appointed for the holding of elections, from the respective candidates nominated as hereinafter provided, one person to be Mayor to serve for one year, and three other persons to be Common Councilmen, to serve for two years; and in addition thereto they shall at the first election herein provided for and to be held on the first Monday in May, 1913, select three additional persons as Common Councilmen to serve for one year only; the candidates for such one-year term to be designated on the ticket as "to serve for one year." They shall also at said election held on the first Monday in May, 1913, elect one person to be Treasurer of said town, to hold office for a period of two years, and at the interval of every two years after said election of the first Monday in May, 1913, a new election for Treasurer shall be held, as hereinafter provided. The Mayor, Treasurer and Common Councilmen must each be duly registered voters of said town, who shall have resided in said town for at least two years immediately preceding their election, and the Mayor and Councilmen must each be the owner of and assessed on the town assessment books with at least three hundred dollars ($300.00) of land or improvements, and must so remain during their respective term of office. Neither the Mayor, Treasurer nor any of the Common Councilmen shall, during his term of office, hold or be interested directly or indirectly in any other office under the town administration, or be a party to or interested directly or indirectly in any contract to which the town is a party. Nor shall the Mayor or any of the Common Councilmen be paid or receive any salary.

SEC. 5. On or before the first Monday in March in each year the Mayor and the Common Council shall appoint three judges of registration and election and two clerks thereof, who shall receive such compensation as said Mayor and Common Council shall provide. Said judges shall each year after their appointment cause to be made a complete registration of all persons entitled to vote at the town elections, and shall appoint
