SEC. 26. At all elections to be held under the provisions of this act on the first Monday in May, 1913, and every two years thereafter there shall be one person elected as treasurer of said town, who shall possess the same qualifications as are herein prescribed in the case of the Mayor, to serve for two years, and until his successor is elected and qualified, whose duty it shall be to keep an account of the receipts and disbursements of the corporation in a well-bound book to be provided by the Mayor and the Common Council, and of all money so received by him, said treasurer before entering upon his duties shall give bond in the penalty of not less than $1,000.00 for the faithful performance of his duties hereunder, with some bonding company acceptable to the Mayor and Common Council as surety, and the said bond shall be recorded among the records of the said corporation; and said treasurer shall qualify and enter upon the duties of his office on or before the first Monday in June succeeding his election, and the failure to qualify within the time herein specified shall be deemed a refusal to accept the office; in which case, as in the case of death, resignation or refusal to act, some person having the qualifications referred to above, shall be elected in his place and stead by the Mayor and a majority vote of all the Common Councilmen elected, provided that at the expiration of the first year of the term of said treasurer and before the tax bills for the next year are placed in his hands, he shall make a full and complete settlement of all money received by him and shall report the amount of and return all bills for taxes which are delinquent tax bills and insolvencies as provided herein, he shall be relieved of the amount so charged against him and the amount of said bill shall at the beginning of the second year of said term be placed in his hands and charged to him under his bond as delinquent taxes to be collected by him as such; and it is further provided that the said treasurer shall within one month after the expiration of his term of office make a full settlement of all moneys received by him, and upon the failure to do this his bond shall be put in suit. All moneys collected or received hereunder by said treasurer shall be disbursed by him upon the orders of the Mayor and the Common Council in accordance with the ordinances or regulations adopted by them respecting such disbursements
