

be in session on election day from six o'clock P. M. until the closing of the polls.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That in case of a tie among those receiving the votes of the electors which shall preclude a decision that any one has received the highest number of votes for Mayor, or that any six have received the highest number of votes for councilmen, and in that event the Council shall designate one of said persons, so tied, to be Mayor and Councilman, as the case may be, and shall issue a certificate of election accordingly.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That if any person elected as Mayor or Councilman shall refuse to serve as such, or his place shall become vacant by death, resignation, disqualification or otherwise, then the other members of the Council shall fill the vacancy as early thereafter as possible by appointment from among the qualified electors of the town; provided, that if such vacancy occurs by reason of failure to qualify as provided in section 12, within two weeks after notice of his election, or otherwise within one month from the date of election, then and in that case, the person receiving the next highest number of votes for such office at such election shall be deemed to have been elected and entitled to qualify.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the Council is hereby empowered at any time that it shall be deemed advisable, to divide the town into election districts, and apportion the membership of the Council among said districts, and provide for the election of individual members of Council from the respective districts in such manner as it may deem proper and best calculated to secure a fair representation of the citizens of the town in the Council; and otherwise to make provisions for the holding and conduct of the elections, general and special, in a manner not inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the members of the newly elected Council shall meet on the Saturday following their election or as soon thereafter as practicable and take the oath of office to support and maintain the constitution and laws of the United States and the State of Maryland, and to perform their respective duties as Mayor and as members of the Council of North Beach to the best of their ability, without fear, favor or partiality.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the Mayor and the Councilmen shall serve for one year from the date of their election and until their successors are elected and qualified, and the service rendered by said Mayor and Councilmen, as such, shall