CHAPTER 559.

AN ACT to repeal Section 46 of Article 2 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, entitled "Anne Arundel County," sub-title "Annapolis," as the same was repealed and re-enacted by Chapter 647 of the Acts of 1910.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 46 of Article 2 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Anne Arundel County," sub-title "Annapolis," be repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows:

46. It shall not be lawful for any person, whether licensed to sell spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquor or not, to sell, give directly or indirectly, dispose of, barter, furnish, hand over or deliver, within the corporate limits of the City of Annapolis, or within five miles thereof, any spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors, wines or cordials of any kind, or in any quantity whatever, to any youth or minor under the age of twenty-one years, either for his or her own use or for the use of any other person, either with or without the written order or consent of the parent or guardian of such minor; nor to any midshipman or student connected with or attached to the Naval Academy at Annapolis, or under orders to join or leave the said Academy, or preparing for admission to said Academy, either for his own use or for the use of any other person, nor to any students of Saint John's College at Annapolis, either with or without the written order of some professor of said Saint John's College, either for his own use or for the use of any other person; and any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction
