

and collect a special tax of not exceeding fifteen (15) cents on every hundred dollars of taxable property within the corporate limits of the Town of Ridgely. The proceeds of such tax shall be collected by the commissioners, and forthwith applied by them to the payment of interest upon and redemption of said bonds as it and they shall become payable and redeemable, and the said taxes are hereby inviolably dedicated to the payment of said interest and principal of said bond issue. Said tax to be levied and collected as other taxes are now by law levied and collected for said town.

SEC. 43. In addition to the funds raised as specified in the foregoing section, the Commissioners of Ridgely are hereby authorized, empowered and directed to raise additional funds for the purpose of paying the interest and principal of the bonds issued under this act in the following described manner, to wit: The Commissioners of Ridgely, from the approximate estimate of the whole cost of constructing any sewer or system of sewers, in accordance with any plan now, or that may hereafter from time to time be adopted, shall apportion the said cost to each lineal foot of sewer to be built in accordance with aforesaid system, said cost to be apportioned alike upon each size of sewer, be it lateral or trunk sewer. The said cost, thus determined, shall be paid by the property abutting upon the streets, highways, lanes or alleys in which said sewers are constructed, at the time of completing each sewer, and the aforesaid property shall be assessed for said costs per lineal foot as follows, to wit:

SEC. 44. All assessments shall be made upon the property abutting upon that portion of any street, highway, lane or alley in which any public sewer may be constructed under this provision at the rate of seventy cents (70c) for each front foot of such property abutting upon such street, highway, lane or alley; provided, however, that where any property is situated at the corner of two such streets, highways, lanes or alleys, or otherwise so situated as to be assessed for the expense of building a sewer on one of such streets, highways, lanes or alleys, only the front (as determined by the Commissioners of Ridgely) of such property shall be liable for such assessment, and the whole assessment shall be made upon the completion of any portion of a sewer, either in front or on the side of such property so as to make the said property assessable to said sewer; and provided further that no property, or portion of property, shall be assessed for the construction of any sewer, unless such property, or some portion thereof, shall abut and be bounded upon the street, highway, lane or alley,
