

3. To attract into said States capitalists, investors and desirable immigrants, and more especially experienced farmers and agricultural laborers.

4. To encourage by every practicable means the establishing in the several States named of the South, by said States or otherwise, bureaus of Agriculture and Immigration Bureaus for the purpose of disseminating reliable information regarding the resources and possibilities of said States.

5. To establish and maintain, so far as practical, a co-operation between the United States Government, the Governments of the several States named, the Railroad and Transportation companies, commercial bodies, real estate men, and members of the said Southern Settlement and Development Organization, in placing the Southern County properly before the people of the world.

6. To secure from the United States Government proper port facilities at Baltimore and the South Atlantic and Gulf Ports for the handling of foreign immigration.

7. To establish the principal office of the Organization, headquarters or bureau in the City of Baltimore, Maryland, with as many branches thereof and in such cities as the executive committee may determine.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the incorporators named above shall have power, in case of death, resignation or disability, to fill vacancies in their number or add to their number by a majority vote at any time.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be one of the objects of the incorporation of said Organization to make money for the said organization or members thereof; but the said organization may collect and receive money in any lawful manner and hold property of any kind, real, personal, or mixed, for the purposes for which said organization is chartered.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the incorporators of said organization and their successors shall have power to elect by a majority vote the members of the Executive Committee, in whose hands shall be the management of the organization as hereinafter set forth.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the officers of said Corporation shall be, a President, who shall preside when present at all meetings of the incorporators; one or more Vice-Presidents, any one of whom shall have and exercise such powers as the Executive Committee may prescribe; a Secretary, whose duties shall be to keep the minutes of the meetings of the incorporators and to conduct any correspondence connected with said