1872, ch. 128. 1874, ch. 219.

18. It shall not be lawful for any persons, other than bona fide resident citizens of Prince George's, Charles, St. Mary's and Calvert counties, to take or catch fish in the waters of the Patuxent river and tributaries, with any seine, weir trap or other device, excepting only the hook and line; provided, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to such as shall obtain permission from the owners of lands bordering on said waters to fish off and opposite their land or lands so bordering on said waters; and provided that none other than bona fide resident citizens of said counties shall use in any of the waters of said river that bind on Prince George's, Charles and Calvert counties above the village known as Benedict any seine, weir, or net more than seventy fathoms long and less than two inches square in the mesh.

Ibid. sec. 19. 1888, art. 39, sec. 19. 1874, ch. 219, sub-sec. 1.

19. It shall not be lawful for any person to empty his seines upon the beach so as to leave the smaller fish to perish, but he shall empty the same in water of sufficient depth to enable such smaller fish to return to the waters for growth and maturity.

Ibid. sec. 20. 1888, art. 39, sec. 20. 1874, ch. 219, sub-sec. 2.

20. Any person violating the provisions of the two preceding sections shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars, in the discretion of the justice of the peace before whom the case is heard; which amount shall be appropriated to the public school fund of the county wherein such judgment is rendered; and for the payment of the amount of fine so adjudged, any boat, seine, weir or other fishing tackle used by any person in violation of the provisions
