

hospital, or has graduated from a training school in connection with a hospital of good standing supplying a systematic three-years' training corresponding to the above standards, which training may be obtained in two or more hospitals.

1904, art. 43, sec. 166. 1904, chs. 172, 241, sec. 5.

205. All nurses graduating before June 1, 1906, possessing the above qualifications shall be permitted to register without examination upon payment of registration fee. Nurses who shall show to the satisfaction of the board of examiners that they are graduates of training schools connected with a general hospital or sanatorium giving two years' training, or prior to the year 1897 having given one year's training, and who maintain in other respects proper standards and are engaged in professional nursing March 25, 1904, or have been engaged in nursing five years after graduation prior to said date, also those who are then in training and shall graduate hereafter and possess the above qualifications shall be entitled to registration without examination; provided, such application be made before June 1, 1906. Graduates of training schools in connection with special hospitals giving a two years' course who shall obtain one year's additional training in an approved general hospital shall be eligible for registration without examination before June 1, 1906; or said graduates shall be eligible for registration prior to said date upon passing special examination before the board of examiners in subjects not adequately taught in the training schools from which they have been graduated. And it shall be unlawful after the expiration of that time for any person to practice professional nursing as a registered nurse without a certificate in this State. A nurse who has received his or her certificate according to the provisions of this sub-title shall be styled and known as a "Registered Nurse." No other person shall assume such title or use the abbreviation "R. N.," or any other letters or figures to indicate that he or she is a registered nurse.

Ibid. sec. 167. 1904, chs. 172, 241, sec. 6.

206. This law shall not be construed to affect or apply to the gratuitous nursing of the sick by friends or members of the family, and also it shall not apply to any person nursing the sick for hire, but who does not in any way assume to be a registered nurse.

Ibid. sec. 168. 1904, chs. 172, 241, sec. 7.

207. Any person violating any of the foregoing provisions or who shall wilfully make any false representation to the board of examiners in applying for a certificate shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars.

Ibid. sec. 169. 1904, chs. 172, 241, sec. 8.

208. The state board of examiners of graduate nurses may revoke any certificate for sufficient cause, but before this is done, the holder
