

1904, art. 44, sec. 6. 1888, art. 44, sec. 6. 1876, ch. 351, sec. 5.

6. They may make, ordain, alter, amend and abolish all by-laws, rules and regulations for the administration and government of said hospital and for the admission and discharge of persons therein or therefrom, which rules and regulations, in so far as they are within the power of said board and are consistent with law, shall be binding on all persons whomsoever.

Sections in the code of 1860 analogous to this section, held to refer to the internal police and management of the hospital, and to authorize the making of rules for the reception and discharge of patients and the fixing of the terms thereof. A contract whereby a lump sum was paid to the hospital for the care of a lunatic as long as she lived, held void as ultra vires; such money may be recovered. Maryland Hospital v. Foreman, 29 Md. 529.

See notes to sec. 2.

Ibid. sec. 7. 1888, art. 44, sec. 7. 1876, ch. 351, sec. 6.

7. They shall maintain an effective inspection of the said hospital and grounds, and for this purpose one of said managers shall visit the same once in every week, two of said managers once in every month, a majority of the board once in every quarter, and the whole board once in every year, at the times and in the manner to be prescribed in the by-laws.

See notes to sec. 2.

Ibid. sec. 8. 1888, art. 44, sec. 8. 1886, ch. 339.

8. They shall appoint two or more students, who shall be residents in the Maryland hospital, for the purpose of studying the subject of insanity; said students shall be provided with quarters as other officers or employes; they shall be graduates of some legally authorized medical college, and shall be appointed for one year, and shall pay the sum of two hundred dollars per annum each for their board and washing; they shall be required to do such medical duties as the board of managers and superintendent may require of them, and they may be summarily dismissed by the board of managers for neglect of duty or any other cause which, in the judgment of said board, may be sufficient to justify such dismissal.

Ibid. sec. 9. 1888, art. 44, sec. 9. 1876, ch. 351, sec. 7.

9. They may take and hold in trust for the State any grant or devise of land, or any donation or bequest of money, or other personal property, to be applied to the maintenance of insane persons, and the use of the Maryland hospital for the insane.

See notes to sec. 2.

Ibid. sec. 10. 1888, art. 44, sec. 10. 1876, ch. 351, sec. 8.

10. They shall annually, in the month of December, submit to the governor a report showing the past year's operations, and actual state of the hospital and property in their charge; and at the same time shall transmit to the governor the annual report of the superintendent and treasurer, which shall show all receipts and expenditures of every officer
