1906, ch. 32.

1. From and after February 27, 1906, all institutions in the counties of this State which are maintained by the county for the care and custody of the indigent poor shall be known under the name and style of the County Home for the respective counties; that is to say, the institution now known as the Almshouse of Allegany county shall be called the Allegany County Home, and so with the almshouses in all other counties of the State. The Trustees of the Poor of the respective counties of this State shall have painted an appropriate sign bearing the name of the County Home, to wit: "Allegany County Home," or other county, as the name shall require, which name shall be placed over the front door or entrance to such home, and shall be kept in good order.

1904, art. 4, sec. 1. 1888, art. 4, sec. 1. 1886, ch. 262. 1906, ch. 32.

2. It shall not be lawful for the Trustees of the Poor of the city of Baltimore, or the County Commissioners or Trustees of the Poor of any of the counties of this State to receive into or retain in any County Home any child between three and sixteen years of age for a longer period than ninety days, unless such child be an unteachable idiot, an epileptic, or a paralytic, or be otherwise so disabled or deformed as to render it incapable of labor or service.
