

provided with a life line sufficiently strong to bear twice his weight, secured independently of the other scaffolding.

1904, art. 48, sec. 80. 1894, ch. 158, sec. 4.

78. Any officer detailed to examine or test any scaffolding or portion thereof as required by sections 75 and 76 shall have free and unobstructed access at all reasonable hours to any building or premises containing them or where they may be in use.

Ibid. sec. 81. 1894, ch. 158, sec. 5.

79. Any person who violates or omits to comply with any of the four preceding sections or who suffers or permits the use of any article or scaffolding declared by a proper officer to be defective, or who destroys or defaces any notice posted in accordance with any of the said provisions, or who hinders or obstructs any officers who may be detailed to enforce said provisions shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction in a court of competent jurisdiction be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars.

Feed Stuffs.

80. Every manufacturer, company or person who shall sell, offer or expose for sale or for distribution in this State any concentrated commercial feeding stuff, as defined in the following section of this sub-title, used for feeding farm live stock and poultry, shall affix to every package of such feeding stuff, in a conspicuous place, on the outside thereof, a plainly printed statement, clearly and truly certifying the number of net pounds in the package sold or offered for sale, the name or trade mark under which the article is sold, the name of the manufacturer or shipper, the place of manufacture, the place of business, the source of the food principles, and a chemical analysis stating the percentage of crude protein, allowing one per cent. of nitrogen to equal six and one-fourth of protein, and of crude fat it contains, both constituents to be determined by the method adopted at the time by the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists.

Ibid. sec. 83. 1900 ch. 287, sec. 85.

81. The term concentrated commercial feeding stuff, as here used, shall not include hays and straws, the whole seeds nor the unmixed meals made directly from the entire grains of wheat, rye, barley, oats, Indian corn, buckwheat and broom corn. Neither shall it include wheat, rye and buckwheat, brans or middlings, not mixed with other substance, but sold separately, as distinct articles of commerce, nor pure grain ground together. The agent of the State hereinafter authorized to make these inspections is fully empowered to take samples of these excepted articles when found, and, if upon analysis they prove
