

1904, art. 56, sec. 101. 1888, art. 56, sec. 89. 1864, ch. 18.

101. In any prosecution for bartering or selling any goods, wares or merchandise, or spirituous or fermented liquor or lager beer without license, it shall be sufficient for the State to prove in the first instance that the party indicted exposed or offered for sale such goods, wares, merchandise or spirituous or fermented liquor or lager beer, or kept any store or place at or in which goods, wares or merchandise, or spirituous liquor or lager beer were exposed or offered for sale, and such testimony shall be prima facie proof of guilt.

Ibid. sec. 102. 1890, ch. 282, sec. 89 A.

102. It shall not be lawful for any club or for any corporation heretofore formed or hereafter to be formed under the general laws of this State or under any special law to give, barter or sell spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer to any member of said club or corporation or to any other person without having first taken out an oyster-house license therefor; provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to Baltimore city.

Ibid. sec. 103. 1892, ch. 447, sec. 89 B.

103. Any person under the age of twenty-one years who knowingly and wilfully makes any misrepresentation or false statement as to his age, and by reason of such misrepresentation or false statement obtains any spirituous or fermented liquors from any other persons licensed to sell such spirituous or fermented liquors under the laws of this State shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than one dollar nor more than twenty dollars or be imprisoned in jail for not less than five days nor more than thirty days, or be both fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the court; provided, that the testimony given by any minor or person under twenty-one years of age in the prosecution of any person for selling liquors to minors under the laws of this State shall not be used against such minor in prosecution under this section.

1906, ch. 582, sec. 2.

104. Any person under the age of twenty-one years who shall knowingly and falsely represent himself to be twenty-one years of age to any licensed inn keeper or other person engaged in the sale of intoxicating liquors, for the purpose of procuring or having furnished to him, by sale, gift or otherwise, any intoxicating liquors shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than twenty-five ($25) dollars or imprisoned in jail for a period not exceeding thirty days.

1906, ch. 582, sec. 1.

105. Any person who shall knowingly, wilfully or falsely represent to any licensed inn keeper, restaurant keeper or other person or persons
