

misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before a justice of the peace having criminal jurisdiction of the city or county wherein such offense was committed, or by the circuit court of the county wherein such offense was committed, or the criminal court of Baltimore city, should the accused party prefer a jury trial, shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than fifty dollars for each and every offense, and in default of the payment of the fine and costs shall be committed to the jail of the county or city, as the case may be, until such fine and costs are paid, provided that said term of imprisonment shall not exceed thirty days for each offense; such fines shall be paid to the adjutant-general of the State, who shall apply the same to the use of the active militia.

1908, ch. 103, sec. 88.

87. The commanding officer upon any occasion of duty, may place in arrest during the continuance thereof, any persons who shall trespass upon the camp ground, parade ground, armory or other place devoted to such duty, or who shall in any way or manner interrupt or molest the orderly discharge of duty by those under arms, or who shall disturb or prevent the passage of troops going to or returning from any duty; he may prohibit and prevent the sale or use of all spirituous liquors, wines, ale or beer, the holding of huckster or auction sales and all gambling within the limits of the post, camp ground, place of encampment, parade or drill under his command.

See sec. 83.

1908, ch. 103, sec. 89.

88. No body of men other than the regularly organized corps of the National Guard and the militia and the troops of the United States, except such military organizations as and are now in existence, shall associate themselves together as a military company or organization, or parade in public as a military company or organization, in any city or town in this State, except by permission of the governor and commander-in-chief.

1908, ch. 103, sec. 90.

89. To promote efficiency, and as a reward for continuous service, the commander-in-chief shall have power, under regulations to be prescribed by him, to issue service medals of appropriate designs to officers and enlisted men of the Maryland National Guard who shall complete ten years of continuous service.

1908, ch. 103, sec. 91.

90. The separate organization in the city of Baltimore known as the veteran corps of the 5th regiment infantry, M. N. G., shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges conferred by this article, except that the said veteran corps shall not share in any appropriation made for the support of the national guard unless the said veteran corps is