

118. Plaintiff to be entitled to judgment for goods elogned, when.
119. How judgment for return of goods or payment for their value may be entered and enforced.
120. Bonds given to state as obligee; action, how maintained.

Reservation of Points in Banc.

121. Proceedings for the hearing of.
122. Points are to be reserved by bills of exceptions.
123. When removed to another court to be disposed of as if originating in such court.

Special Case Stated.

124. May be raised at any stage of the cause by a party or the court; procedure.

Summons with Claim for Injunction or Mandamus.

- 125-136. Special provisions relating to; proceedings and practice.
137. Nothing in sections 125-136 to be taken as in any way modifying or impairing jurisdiction of common-law courts in cases of mandamus, or equity courts in matters of injunction.

Supplementary Proceedings.

138. Order of court requiring attendance of judgment debtor to be examined regarding concealed property or credits.
139. Person or corporation having property of the judgment debtor to attend also.
140. Said parties shall testify under oath.
141. Power of court to grant relief to judgment creditor.
142. Punishment for contempt of court's order.
143. When proceedings applicable to judgments of justices of the peace.

III.

PROCESS.

144. Writ of summons; how issued, served and returned.
145. Personal appearance of defendant; when to be entered.
146. Where some appear and some do not, personal appearance to be entered for those falling to appear.
147. Where defendants shall be sued; excepted cases.
148. Trespasser; where suable.
149. Where captain or owner of vessel may be sued for non-delivery of goods shipped.
150. Jurisdiction of county lying on navigable river.
151. Jurisdiction of counties on navigable waters; proviso.
152. County maps to be evidence of boundaries and to determine center of waters.
153. Certified copies of county maps to be filed and to be authoritative.
154. Process for arrest of person committing crimes; how and where to be issued.
155. Suits against devisees of deceased debtor.
156. Writ of scire factas; how to be served.
157. Duplicates of writs of scire factas against heirs and terre-tenants; when to be issued and how served.
158. Joint action against heirs and devisees living in different counties; duplicate writs may issue.
159. Summons for witnesses residing in different counties; how to be issued.
160. Attachment against such witnesses for failure to appear.
161. How clerk shall issue writs to be served in any other county than that of which he is clerk.
162. Clerks to send daily to the post office for their mail.