

1904, art. 75 A, sec. 3. 1900, ch. 179, sec. 3.

3. Examinations of persons applying for certificates under this article shall be held at least once every year and be conducted according to such rules and regulations as the said board of examiners may adopt for the purpose. The results of such examination shall be certified to the governor and to all persons as may have passed examination satisfactory to said board of examiners and by it been recommended, the governor shall issue the certificate mentioned in the first section of this article.

Ibid. sec. 4. 1900, ch. 179, sec. 4.

4. The board of examiners shall charge for examination and certificate such fee as may be necessary to meet the actual expenses of such examination and issuing of such certificate and shall report annually the receipts and expenses under the provisions of this article to the state comptroller, and the surplus, if any, of receipts over expenses shall be paid into the state treasury. The governor may revoke any certificates issued under the provisions of this article for a sufficient cause; provided, written notice shall have been given to the holder thereof, and after he has had an opportunity for a hearing thereon.

Ibid. sec. 5. 1900, ch. 719, sec. 5.

5. The board of examiners may in its discretion waive the examination of any person possessing the qualifications mentioned in section 1 of this article who shall have been at the time of the enactment of this article practising in this State as a public accountant on his own account, and who shall apply in writing to said board for such certificate within one year after the enactment of this article, and upon the recommendation of said board the governor shall issue said certificate to such person.

Ibid. sec. 6. 1900, ch. 719, sec. 6.

6. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court having criminal jurisdiction shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, or be confined not more than six months in the county jail, if the conviction takes place in Baltimore city, in the Baltimore city jail, in the discretion of the court.
