3. The treasurer, upon the warrant of the comptroller, shall pay to the publishers of the newspapers in which the public general laws shall have been published in conformity with the provisions aforesaid, the compensation to which they may be respectively entitled for publishing said general laws; the said warrant shall be issued within six months from the time of publications aforesaid; provided, however, that not more than six hundred dollars shall be paid for the publication of said laws in any one county, and not more than six hundred dollars shall be paid to each of the four papers for the publication of said laws as aforesaid in the city of Baltimore.

1904, art. 76, sec. 4. 1888, art. 76, sec. 4. 1865, ch. 31. 1870, ch. 274. 1872, ch. 410. 1874, ch. 32. 1902, ch. 390. 1908, ch. 257.

4. Every public local law made to take effect before the first day of June next after the session at which it may be passed, shall immediately after its passage be published once in each of three successive weeks in such newspaper or newspapers of the respective counties in which it may operate as the county commissioners of each county may direct; and in case such law is to be operative in the city of Baltimore, then once in each of three successive weeks in such daily newspaper or newspapers published in said city, as the mayor thereof may direct; and the mayor and city council of Baltimore and the county commissioners of the several counties shall provide for the payment of such publication; provided, that as to Prince George's county, the county commissioners thereof shall direct the publication of such laws in three newspapers published in different sections in said county, the papers designated for such work to be in the discretion of the county commissioners, the total cost of which shall not exceed $600.00, and no discrimination shall be made by said commissioners as to the amount each of the three newspapers so designated shall receive for such work.

Ibid. sec. 5. 1888, art. 76, sec. 5. 1865, ch. 31. 1870, ch. 105. 1870, ch. 274.

5. A certified copy of every public local law made to take effect as aforesaid, shall immediately after its passage, be transmitted by mail by the secretary of the senate (if the same originated in the senate) and by the chief clerk of the house of delegates (if the same originated in the house of delegates). to the county commissioners of the county or counties in which the same may operate, or to the mayor of the city of Baltimore, if the same is to operate in that city; and it shall be the duty of the said county commissioners and mayor, upon receipt of such certified copy, to have the same published as provided in the preceding section.
