

out of the State school fund to any school house district as library money as long as the people of the district raise the same amount annually; the books must be selected by the board of district school trustees and teachers from a list to be furnished by the state board of education.

1904, art. 77, sec. 110. 1902, ch. 247, sec. 1. 1910, ch. 505, sec. 95 (p. 221).

100. The governor shall biennially appoint four persons, at least two of whom shall be women, who, with the state librarian, the superintendent of public instructions and the librarian of the Enoch Pratt Free Library, shall constitute the Maryland public library commission.

Ibid. sec. 111. 1902, ch. 247, sec. 2. 1910, ch. 505, sec. 96 (p. 221).

101. Said commission shall annually elect from their own number a president and a secretary, who, with the other members of the commission, shall serve without pay, but the necessary traveling expenses of the commissioners in attending upon the meetings of the commission or its business away from their homes, may be paid out of the appropriation for the commission. The secretary shall also act as treasurer of the commission and shall give bond with approved security for the proper performance of his duties.

Ibid. sec. 112. 1902, ch. 247, sec. 3. 1910, ch. 505, sec. 97 (p. 222).

102. Said commission shall give advice and counsel to all public libraries and public school libraries in the State and to all persons proposing to establish them, as to the best means of their establishment and maintenance, the selection of books, cataloguing and other details of management. Said commission shall annually report to the governor in the month of November, a full and complete account of its doings and of its receipts and expenditures.

Ibid. secs. 113 and 114. 1902, ch. 247, secs. 4 and 5. 1910, ch. 505, sec. 98 (p. 222).

103. Said commission shall organize and conduct traveling libraries throughout the State, shall formulate such reasonable regulations for the use and care of the books of such traveling libraries as they may deem proper; and shall from time to time send out and distribute such books throughout the State, and at suitable intervals change such distributions so as to secure the greatest advantage.

Ibid. sec. 115. 1902, ch. 247, sec. 6. 1910, ch. 505, sec. 99 (p. 222).

104. The state treasurer shall annually on the first day of October pay to the treasurer of the commission the sum of fifteen hundred dollars for the use of the commission.

1910, ch. 505, sec. 100 (p. 222).

105. Said commission, upon application of the library directors of a county, municipality or election district which has complied with the